Mission Statement

The mission of the Holocaust Memorial and Tolerance Center of Nassau County is to teach the Holocaust, a unique catastrophe that reflects the horrors of anti-Semitism, and to demonstrate the destructive nature of prejudice, hatred, apathy, and violence against all minorities. We seek to promote an awareness and understanding of the tragic lessons of the Holocaust; to engender a commitment to actively resist discrimination and intolerance; and to nurture respect for the uniqueness of every human being in order to better enable people to live together in peace and harmony.

17TH ANNUAL
TRIBUTE DINNER

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 17, 2009

MORRIS LENER

Morris Lener, an active member of his Jewish Center, lives by the Jewish belief “Tikkun Olam” – helping God to repair the world. He is committed to helping people of all ethnic backgrounds to overcome their personal hardships and to live productive lives. Through his work with Creative Capital’s structured settlement process and his personal philanthropic efforts, Morris has fulfilled his commitment to enrich the lives of others.

BARBARA AND ALAN ROSENZWEIG

Barbara and Alan Rosenzweig have lived in Sands Point for 30 years where they raised three children – Ilene, a NY Times editor turned TV writer, Debra, a psychologist, and Brett an equine veterinarian. Now grandparents of six, Barbara is an abstract painter and Alan a consultant to prestigious law firms. As patrons of the Metropolitan Opera, the Cultural Center of Santa Margherita, Italy where they have a second home, Alyn Children’s Hospital in Jerusalem and their local Chabad, the Rosenzweigs are supporters of the arts, good causes and lovers of life.

HOWARD S. WEITZMAN

Completing his second term as Nassau County Comptroller, Howard Weitzman serves as the independent fiscal watchdog over Nassau County’s $2.7 billion budget. His office has recovered millions of dollars for the taxpayers by exposing waste, fraud, abuse and misspending by government agencies and vendors that do business with the County. Howard has also worked to streamline local governments and limit property tax increases. Over the years, Howard has been a great friend of the Center.

GLORIA GLANTZ

Gloria Glantz’s mother left her with a righteous peasant family once conditions grew ominous in Nazi-occupied Poland. Gloria never saw her own family again. Her post-war efforts to reach relatives in America entailed journeying through four countries on two continents and staying with different families. Gloria is the winner of numerous education awards including the 2002 winner of The Spirit of Anne Frank Outstanding Educator Award. She is one of the Center’s leading educators devoting many hours speaking to groups inspiring them with her powerful testimony. Gloria serves as Co-chair of the Center’s Board Committee for Education.
